Park Platz

Programme in July 2021

berlinischegalerie.de/en/visit/calendar

The concept for “Park Platz” combines art with interactive events. A temporary pavilion by architects c/o now and new works by Berlin-based contemporary artists from many different countries will transform the museum car park into an urban forum.

A public theatre is emerging with an exhibition area and space for collective action, performance, debate, video screening and workshops, but also for cooking together and relaxing on a summer’s day.

A project with Atelier Bunter Jakob, Bilgisaray, c/o now, Zuzanna Czabatul, Kotti-Shop, Kunstwerkstatt Kreuzberg der Lebenshilfe Berlin e.V., Daniel Lie, Hanne Lippard, Mpower e.V., Ania Nowak, Lucas Odahara, POLIGONAL, Przemek Pyszczek, Liz Rosenfeld, Marinella Senatore, Raul Walch

Some programmes have to be cancelled in case of bad weather. Please check our website for further information. Visitors can enter the site without a time-slot ticket and without evidence of a negative test.

Performances

Free admission, registration online:

bg.berlin/en/online-tickets

The performances take place in English.

Ania Nowak

„Agonal Respirations“, 2021

Fri 9.7.21, 8 pm

Sat 10.7.21, 8 pm

In her new performance Ania Nowak addresses memory and its gradual loss. She works with and against a common experience in the everyday life of a pandemic – the mental condition of “brain fog”: it impairs memory, concentration, creativity and our ability to solve problems. The performance explores breathing, speaking, moving and the transience of our actions.

Liz Rosenfeld

„This should happen here more often“

An evening of creative insights about spaces of cruising and desire

Sat 17.7.21, 6 pm

For almost twenty years, Rosenfeld has addressed cruising and public space as a setting for desire in her art and writing. Cruising means going out into public places to look for anonymous sex, and the practice has evolved out of a primarily cis-male, homosexual history. On this evening, Liz Rosenfeld (*1979) brings artists and theoreticians together to talk about the theme: Luiza Prado De O. Martins, An*dre Neely, Season Butler, Jesse Darling, Marit Östberg, Rodrigo Garcia Alves, Ariel Efraim Ashbel, Liz Rosenfeld

Liz Rosenfeld

„CHARPER NOCHY SEEKING THE NIGHT“

with Colin Self

Sat 24.7.21, 7 pm

Liz Rosenfeld's contribution to "Park Platz" looks at cruising, i.e. going out into public places in search of anonymous sex, a practice that evolved from a primarily cis-male, homosexual history. In this joint performance, Colin Self responds to Liz Rosenfeld's art, presenting visuals created especially for this evening. Audience interaction is encouraged in Polari – an old slang with "criminal" notoriety used by queer men in Britain to communicate before homosexuality was legalised. Artist Colin Self lives and works in Berlin. He creates music, performances and environments to expand consciousness, constrict binary parameters and push back the limits to perception and communication.

Hanne Lippard

„Little Lamp“, 2011–2019

Sat 31.7.21, 8 pm

The performative works in Hanne Lippard's language-based art practice refer in multiple ways to the significance of listening and coming together. Everyday life is reflected in language, rhythm and clever word play. In "Little Lamp", Lippard narrates short, intimate memories of forgotten feelings and experiences: journeys, movements, solitude and forms of contact.

Art After Work

An event by Jung und Artig

Thu 8.7.21, 6 – 10 pm

In German

Dr Thomas Köhler, the director of the Berlinische Galerie, will be talking to c/o now, the studio of architects who designed the "Park Platz" pavilion.

€ 7 / reduced rate € 5* (* for Friends and Young Friends)

Online Tickets: berlinischegalerie.de/index.php?id=576

Artist Talks

Debate and exchange with the artists involved in „Park Platz“ are an essential part of the programme. On selected Fridays, these contributors will be on site to talk about their practice, their methods and their research in discussion with „Park Platz“ curator and project manager Nuno de Brito Rocha. Admission to the Artist Talks is free and without registration.

Workshops

“Sundays in the Park”

Sun 2 – 6 pm

Open workshops take place every Sunday in the "Park Platz" pavilion, transforming the venue into a studio. Every week, different artists and art educators will offer a variety of guidance on building, printing, exploring, experimenting, drawing and formulating ideas. This is about a community getting together to make art and learn from each other. With Atelier Bunter Jakob, c/o now, Kotti Shop, Dirk Sorge Raul Walch, Igor Vidor and other artists and art educators.

open to all age groups, come along whenever you want

Guided Tours

Curator's Tour "Park Platz"

Wed 7.7.21, 5 – 6 pm in German

Wed 28.7.21, 5 – 6 pm in English

“Park Platz” is a “Draussenstadt” project funded by the Federal State of Berlin.
